H.R. 3361 – USA FREEDOM Act (Rep. Sensenbrenner – Judiciary/Intelligence) (One Hour of Debate). This bill would modify domestic surveillance authorities by prohibiting the government's bulk collection and storage of business records, including telephone metadata. The measure would require the government to obtain pre-approval from the FISA Court to conduct a search of call detail records for individual target phone numbers on a case-by-case basis, except in cases of emergency.

The bill also expands reporting on business records collection and FISA Court decisions, establishes an amicus to provide outside expertise for significant matters before the FISA Court, and requires the declassification or summaries of FISA court orders and decisions. In addition, the bill aligns the expiration of certain PATRIOT Act provisions with other provisions in FISA.

The Rule, which was adopted yesterday, provides for a closed Rule and one hour of debate.

The Daily Quote

"This is how difficult it is to get any sort of immigration-related legislation through the GOP-controlled House: A Republican-authored bill to allow 'dreamers' to enlist in the military and also qualify for legal status is being blocked. Republican Rep. Jeff Denham of California has been lobbying to get a vote on his proposal, the Enlist Act, which is cosponsored by 26 Democrats and 24 Republicans, including Majority Whip Kevin McCarthy... Denham had initially tried to get the proposal through via the National Defense Authorization Act, a must-pass defense bill. GOP leadership killed that idea Friday and on Tuesday night it was blocked in the House Rules Committee from coming to the floor as an amendment to the bill... 'Not only is this an issue of national security and military readiness, but those kids who are here and have gone through our education system, why wouldn't we let the Department of Defense to pick the best and brightest?' Denham said. 'I believe in earned citizenship, but there's no better way to show your patriotism, your commitment, your sacrifice, and the willingness to earn your citizenship than a willingness to serve in our military."'
